RULE Changes/Amendments: Please circle YES or NO

1. SEDRA sanctioned rides: (Page 18, Appendix B. Award Programs)

It was presented to the BOD now that USEF includes endurance competitions opened to all distance riders, that SEDRA recognize USEF miles in our awards program.

Current Rule:

Only SEDRA sanctioned rides/drives shall count for High Point. ECTRA, AHA, AERC, NATRC and SEDRA sanctioned rides/drives may count for mileage, subject to SEDRA awards program requirements.

-AND-

To receive mileage credit for an AERC or FEI ride that is not SEDRA, ECTRA, NATRC, or AHA sanctioned, it is the riders and/or drivers responsibility to do the following...

ADD: To include USEF (Unites States Equestrian Federation) to the awards program YES NO

2. Amend Committees

It was presented to the BOD that some committees are no longer required and that those committees be removed from our rule book.

It was also presented we add a committee to assist with the managing of the Florida 100 (formerly the FHA 100) now that SEDRA has agreed to continue this historical Florida competitive trail ride (ca 1950)

Please Note: When there is a need to discuss any rules, violations, PR and sanctioning, your BOD will do so.
